Supports in the development of evidence based interventions

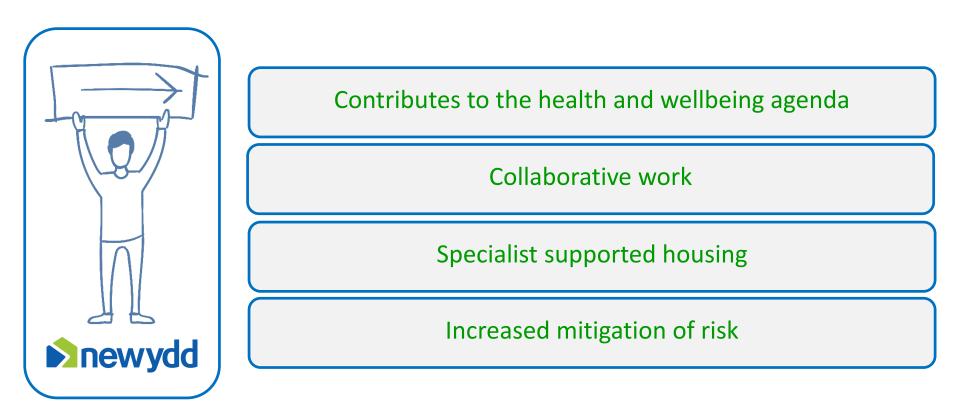

Landlord perspective

Local Authority perspective

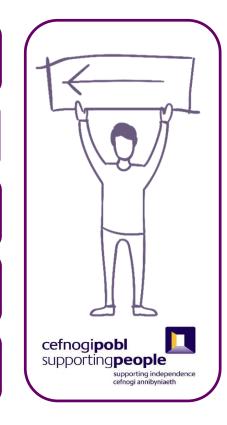

Mental health a priority in needs mapping and SPOP

Supports in the prevention of homelessness

Better utilisation of Supporting People money

Strengthens the links to mental health services

Provides a wrap around service

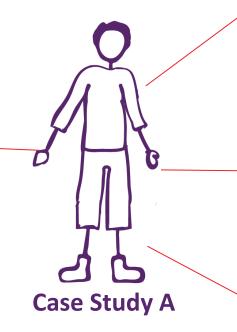

Service user perspective

History Diagnosis of Schizophrenia, history of repeat psychiatric admissions, evictions/ homelessness and substance misuse

Managing Accommodation

Successfully maintained own tenancy for over 2yrs. Support now fully withdrawn, A has a secure tenancy.

Feeling Part of the Community A's anxiety when accessing the community has significantly reduced, he's set goals to attend college and social groups.

Mentally Healthy

A has not had any reoccurrence of psychosis and no re-admissions. Selfharm and hallucinations are also significantly reduced.

Service user perspective

History Diagnosis of Schizophrenia, history of psychiatric admissions, long-term stay in shared supported housing Case Study H

Managing Accommodation –Successfully maintained own tenancy for over 2yrs and very proud of his home. Support is gradually withdrawing, H will have a secure tenancy.

Managing Money – Developed excellent budgeting skills and manages money independently.

Feeling Part of the Community – Developed interest in music and joined a local project, H now plays drums in a band regularly.

Mentally Healthy – No reoccurrence of psychosis during support; now presents as confident, relaxed and very positive about the future.

Newydd Gofol Thinking Differently

Enhancing our partnership with service users

People with mental health problems are experts by experience

Service user influence at all levels in the organisation

Service users have an integral role in monitoring, evaluating and future planning of services

Service user involvement in tender bids and presentations

Long-term aim of having a service user on the steering group
